

Seals Player Conduct Contract

The Seals organization provides a professional and enjoyable environment, and in doing so expects a professional attitude from each coach. There is a “zero tolerance” for any kind of chemical substance(s). There is absolutely no consumption of alcoholic beverages before or during practices, games, Seals events, tournaments, and camps.

Any damages to hotel rooms, rental vans, or any property will be the financial responsibility of the individual(s) involved and not that of the Seals organization or any member of the organization, unless they are directly responsible for the damages.

Any verbal or physical damage done to anyone will not be tolerated and the Seals organization will not be held responsible.

Any non-compliance with the above statement(s), the Seals organization is not accountable and proper action will be conducted on the individual(s) responsible for the act.

Requirements:

- Complete 5 full days of working Seals youth baseball camp
- Complete assigned field duties before/ after game.
- Attend mandatory events, practices, and games.

Consequences will include:

- Immediate release from the team
- The National Baseball Congress (NBC) will be notified of your termination
- Your collegiate coach will be notified of your termination
- Your parents/guardians will be notified of your termination
- Your release will be noted in any reports to area pro-baseball scouts

I have read the above statements and fully understand the responsibility I am taking that represents the Seals organization, fellow teammates, and myself.
